SILENT ON COLONEL'S SPEECH. Taft Refuses to Comment on Boose

There was no official comment at the White House yesterday on Col. Roosever veit's apeech at Carnegie Hall, in which he attacked President Taft. It was asid that Mr. Taft has no intention of making a direct and immediate reply to the speech. It was pointed out, however, that Mr. Taft will continue his present policy of discussing the issues of the campaign without engagaths in personal controversy with Col. Rooseveit or any of the other candidates.

"It is true that I am a candidate for the office from which Dr. Wiley resigned, and I understand that political influence is at work in my favor. I have received a large number of letters from heads at colleges and scientific bodies all over the United States indoorsing me for the place. My official connection with the government prevents me from personally taking part in efforts to secure the appropriation, and I have atricity and conscientiously observed this rule."

Dr. Bigelow declined to say whether, he would follow Dr. Wiley's ideas as carried out by him so far as they relate to the pure food law, it appendicts. Solicitor McCabe, or the Agricultural Department, who was reported as being actively interested in Dr. Bigelow's candidacy, denied last night that he was taking any part whatever in the matter.
